

FAIRHAVEN BAPTIST COLLEGE

DR. ROGER VOEGLIN, PRESIDENT

86 EAST OAK HILL ROAD
CHESTERTON, INDIANA 46304
(219) 926-6636

August 16, 2005

Dear Friends,

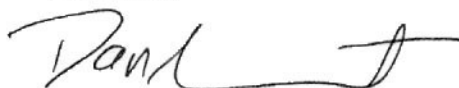

In this day when Satan seems to be ensnaring so many families, the need for clear Bible preaching and teaching on family relationships is needed now more than ever before. We thank the Lord that we have been brought into contact with Pastor Terry Coomer, pastor of Elwood Bible Baptist Church (Elwood, Indiana) and director of "For the Love of the Family Ministries". I can tell you this from firsthand knowledge: he has a deep-rooted passion to help churches build their most valuable asset—their families.

Pastor Coomer has spoken several times for us here at Fairhaven Baptist Church and College, and he has always left us with greater desire to invest our lives into our families. I have spent time with Pastor and Mrs. Coomer, and have also met his two daughters—they are examples of a godly Christian family. Pastor Coomer preaches very clearly from God's Word while covering both child-parent relationships and husband-wife relationships. His preaching aims to strengthen strong points while mending damaged areas among the families. His speaking ministry has blessed our church.

I would also encourage you to look at the For the Love of the Family website at www.fortheloveofthefamily.com. The booklets For the Love of the Family produces are in our college bookstore and we encourage all our students to read and become familiar with them. They have been helpful to our students.

One motto of Pastor Coomer's ministry speaks of America's forgotten mission field, the family. We whole-heartedly agree with his assessment and know that his ministry would be one of help, encouragement, and strengthening of the families of your church. We would encourage you to consider scheduling him for a meeting at your church.

Sincerely,

Dan Armacost
Dean of Students

DA:dw